Dear Sir:

Interested on the "Songs of the Southwest", kindly take my name and address for one subscription. Kindly let me know its price.

Sincerely

J. B. Roure

Rev. Father J. B. Roure,
529 So. I Street,
Lompoc, Cal.

Dear Father Roure:

Answering yours of the 20th (which was carried far out of the way by the careless mails), I enclose you circular and subscription blanks for "Spanish Songs of Old California."

I am glad you are interested in this attempt to save "The Flowers of Our Lost Romance;" and I am sure you will find this book not only a handsome but a very valuable one.

I will be glad to enter your subscription and will forward you a copy as soon as the books come from the printers - which will be within a few weeks.

Sincerely yours,

CFL/R
